

ACRYLIC PAINTING CLASS

WITH VERONICA BORISSOVA

Veronica's approach to art is to experiment without the fear of making mistakes.

The focus on this trimester is to free ourselves through art. To feel the freedom to express ourselves while using paint, brushes and anything else that inspires us.

Veronica will guide you through the painting process. By having fun she will teach you how to mix and get the right color, how to create beautiful compositions and improve your painting skills. We will start with acrylic paint and oil pastels. Material for the first lesson will be provided.
